Skills for Effective Parent Advocacy

A curriculum created by the National Family Advocacy Support and Training (FAST) Project, a project of PACER Center: fastfamilysupport.org

Agenda

You will learn:

- What advocacy means
- How to improve your advocacy skills
- How you can make a difference!

Use Your Power

“The most common way people give up their power is by thinking they don’t have any.”

—Alice Walker

What is an Advocate?

Advocates speak up for themselves or others to make things better.

Have you ever?

- Met with your child's teacher about any issue?
- Spoke at a local gathering about a project you care about?
- Told a cashier that an item was not ringing up correctly?

Why be an Advocate?

- Your experiences are valuable and can be used to improve things
- You know when something is or isn't working
- You have ideas how to make things better
- You have the only long-term connection to this child

Six Skills

To be an effective advocate:

1. Understand your child's disability
2. Know the key players
3. Know your rights and responsibilities
4. Become well organized
5. Use clear and effective communication
6. Know how to resolve disagreements

In Other Words:

1. Who is the “star”?
2. Who are the players?
3. What are the rules?
4. What is my plan of action?
5. What do I say when it's my turn?
6. What do we do when we disagree?

Skill #1: Understand Your Child's Disability

Understanding helps you:

- Know which services are appropriate for your child
- Have high expectations
- Find the right assistive technology and accommodations

Use resources to learn more!
